Fiji TV to Broadcast 2020 Ratu Sukuna Bowl Challenge

12th November 2020, Suva, Fiji – Fiji Television Limited today announced that it has signed an exclusive agreement with Royal Fiji Military Forces to broadcast 2020 Ratu Sukuna Bowl Challenge on it's Free to air channel (Fiji One).

The Sukuna Bowl is an annual rugby union fixture that usually takes place in Suva, Fiji. The Sukuna Bowl is contested between the Fiji Police Forces and the Fiji Military Forces.

Army defeated Police to claim the 2019 Ratu Sukuna Bowl title at ANZ Stadium. Final scores after a tightly contested match between the two disciplined forces resulted in a 20-17 win to Army. The victorious captain of the Army team, Staff Sergeant Sereli Ledua dedicated their win to their children and families.

Out of the nine different sporting games played during the 2019 Sukuna Bowl competition, Army won the Cricket match, the Wives category in both the volleyball and netball finals, the rugby development, oldies four quarters match and the rugby main match

Fiji TV Board Chairman, Deepak Rathod said "That Fiji TV has partnered with Royal Fiji Military Forces for the 2020 Ratu Sukuna Bowl and we hope to continue and grow the partnership even further. The Sukuna Bowl Challenge is a great platform for all our local players to showcase their capabilities and we would like all our viewers to be part of the whole event. Fiji TV strives to bring the best content to our viewers and will continue to do so throughout the year. We also would like to thank our sponsors for their support, commitment and loyalty to our brand."

The Rugby Main Match will be televised LIVE on the 11th of December 2020 on Fiji TV's Free to Air Channel (Fiji One) and LIVE Streamed on Fiji TV's Streaming Channel worldwide.
