PNGFM LTD ANNOUNCES NEW GENERAL MANAGER

PNG FM Ltd (Communications Fiji Ltd's 100% subsidiary) operate PNG's top radio stations Nau FM (established 1994), YUMI FM (1997) and Legend FM (2011).

The company announced last night, at an event to celebrate 23 years of operation, the appointment of Rosemarie Botong as General Manager.

Rosemarie takes over the reins from Charles Taylor who makes his exit after 3 years in the position. (Chas became PNGFM Deputy GM on the 16th of July 2014 and has held position of General Manager since March 1st 2017.) Charles is returning to a Fiji based senior executive position within the CFL group to be announced later this month.

Better known as Shaz from her on-air days of NauFM and Legend FM, she is no stranger to the industry having started her career in 1999 with NauFM.

In 2011, Shaz became part of the inaugural Legend FM on-air team and quickly established her following on the breakfast show.

In 2018, she moved off-air to take up the Sales Director position for PNGFM.

PNG FM Chairman and founding PNG FM team member Peter Aitsi says this is a big moment for PNGFM and for the PNG media industry as a whole, "the appointment of Rosemarie reflects PNG FM's long and proud history as an equal opportunity employer. We don't care where you are from, your background or your gender Everyone has the opportunity to excel at PNG FM".

Indeed, this could not come at a better time, with International Women's Day recently marked on the 8th of March. PNGFM at present has seven women in managerial positions making up 70% of management positions in the company.

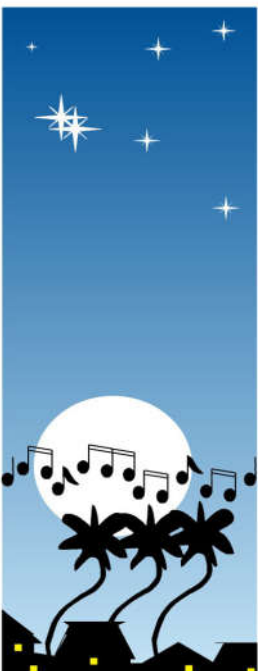

Commenting on her appointment Rosemarie said, "It's an absolute honour and we look forward to continuing to be the number one media company in the industry and to say that we reach more Papua New Guineans than any other medium on any given time or day".
