FHL Statement on Incident at FHL Tower Site

Fijian Holdings Limited (FHL) have been advised by the main contractors that one of the two individuals injured in the incident at the FHL Tower construction site on November 25, 2024, has sadly passed away. The second individual has been discharged and is recovering well.

We continue to work closely with the contractor and relevant authorities to ensure due process is followed and that all safety protocols are strictly upheld.

Our deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences go out to the family of the deceased during this difficult time.

END

Deputy Chairman
