MARKET ANNOUNCEMENT

- Sends Fijians for employment in Tokyo.

Free Bird Institute takes great pride in announcing the successful placement of another Fijian candidate through our esteemed Japanese Language School program. Mr. Luca Vakatawa, a dedicated and accomplished student, has recently departed our shores on the 11th of July 2023 to begin his employment with Japan Airlines. This opportunity has been made possible through the partnership between Free Bird Institute (FBI) and the National Agency for Aviation and Broadcasting (NAAB).

Mr. Vakatawa has displayed exceptional commitment and proficiency during his time at our Japanese Language School. His successful completion of the program has equipped him with the necessary language skills and cultural understanding to thrive in the Japanese work environment. We are confident that his dedication and enthusiasm will contribute to the continued success of Japan Airlines.

The collaboration between Free Bird Institute and NAAB has been instrumental in providing opportunities for Fijian individuals to excel in the aviation industry in Japan. Through our Japanese Language School program, we are committed to nurturing talent, fostering cultural exchange, and facilitating the professional development of our students.

We extend our heartfelt congratulations to Mr. Luca Vakatawa on his accomplishment and wish him great success in his new role with Japan Airlines. We are confident that he will uphold the values and professionalism instilled in him during his time at Free Bird Institute.

Thank you.
