AWARENESS INITIATIVES

This week, SPX joined the Ministry of Women, Children and Poverty Alleviation in the REACH Programme, beginning its community outreach in Saolo Village, Bua. The initiative marked the start of a week-long journey focused on empowerment, awareness, and access to essential information and services. Through meaningful conversations and shared learning, SPX engaged with community members to promote financial inclusion and highlight the benefits of long-term investing. The collaboration reinforces SPX's commitment to empowering Fijians and supporting sustainable development through financial literacy and participation in the capital market.
