COMMUNICATIONS FIJI LTD

Celebrating 40 Years of Broadcasting Excellence!

After the incredible success of Fiji Showcase, Communications Fiji Limited (CFL) is thrilled to begin celebrations marking 40 years of broadcasting in the Pacific!

CFL made history when it first went on air on 5th July 1985, becoming one of the first privately owned broadcasters in the region. Since then, CFL has grown into a powerhouse of trusted media brands, cherished by listeners, online followers, clients, and communities across Fiji and PNG.

Now, it's time to celebrate our journey—and yours!

Starting Thursday, 3rd July, we kick off a three-day celebration with a series of exciting events leading up to our grand finale concert on Saturday, 5th July at Albert Park.

Event Line-up:

Thursday, 3rd July

Educational Session: 9am–1pm at Metro Events center (United Club)

Client seminar with Steve and Catherine Toms plus our long-time consultant Eriks Celmins. The seminar aims to educate clients on the latest digital media and AI based marketing trends.

Evening Cocktail: From 6pm to 9pm at home of CFL (231 Waimanu Rd Car Park) —an evening of networking and celebration with our valued advertising clients.

Friday, 4th July

Alumni Night: 6pm–10pm at CFL 231 Waimanu Rd

A heartfelt evening dedicated to former CFL team members who helped shape our legacy.

Saturday, 5th July – The Big Day!

Free Live Gratitude Concert: 4pm–11pm at Albert Park

A spectacular evening with live performances, entertainment, and a celebration for our loyal listeners, followers, and YOU—our shareholders. Some of Artist that will be featured are:
