

Press Release – 17 July 2025

Leadership Changes at Sun Insurance

Sun Insurance is pleased to announce a significant leadership transition within its executive team, reinforcing our commitment to growth and strategic development.

Effective immediately, Avikash Ram has been appointed as the new Principal Officer of Sun Insurance. In this capacity, he will oversee the company's operations and strategic initiatives. Additionally, Thomas Naua has been named Deputy Principal Officer, bringing his extensive industry experience to support the company's leadership.

Avikash Ram, who currently serves as Manager of Sales & Customer Service, has dedicated 15 years to Sun Insurance, during which he has held various key roles. His deep understanding of the company's operations, combined with his leadership skills, positions him well to steer the organization forward. Thomas Naua, a seasoned industry veteran with over 30 years of experience, currently serves as the Chief Product Development Officer. His expertise in product innovation and market expansion will be instrumental in driving Sun Insurance's future growth.

We also acknowledge the departure of Tarlochan Singh, who has decided to leave the company to pursue personal business ventures. Tarlochan has been an integral part of Sun Insurance for the past 13 years, during which he made a positive and lasting impact on our organization. The company sincerely appreciates his dedicated service and contributions.

Chairman Padam Lala expressed his gratitude, stating, "We sincerely appreciate Tarlochan Singh's 14 years of dedicated service and his positive influence on our company's development. We wish him all the best in his future endeavours."

To support the new leadership team, three experienced directors, along with our recently appointed Chief Transformation Officer, Nouzab Fareed, will continue to play a vital role. Their collective guidance and strategic insights will be critical in ensuring a smooth leadership transition and in shaping the company's future direction.

Sun Insurance remains committed to strengthening its leadership and leveraging its talented team to deliver value to our customers, shareholders, and stakeholders. We look forward to a new chapter of growth and innovation under the capable leadership of Avikash and Thomas.
