LEADERSHIP APPOINTMENT

Fijian Holdings Limited announces the appointment of Sitiveni Nabuka as the new Group Manager IT effective from 3rd June 2024.

Mr. Nabuka brings a wealth of experience to his new role, having previously served in the public sector as Director for e-Government and more recently as Director for the Project Management Office at the Fiji National Provident Fund (FNPF). He has led and delivered various notable innovative solutions that have significantly impacted Fijian citizens. Mr. Nabuka spearheaded major innovations such as the solution for the Births, Deaths & Marriages (BDM) office, the electoral register, the immigration system, and the implementation of the government's Data Centre during his time with government.

During his tenure at FNPF, Mr. Nabuka was an integral part of the leadership team, driving the organisation's reform agenda and digital transformation journey. His efforts led to notable nationwide results during the Tropical Cyclone Winston assistance and COVID-19 relief efforts.

Chairman, Rokoseru Nabalarua welcomes Mr. Nabuka to the FHL Group. “The company eagerly anticipates his valuable contributions to advancing the Group Digitalisation Strategy. His appointment is expected to significantly enhance the Group’s digital infrastructure and strategic IT initiatives, ensuring robust and innovative solutions that align with the company’s strategy”.
