FOUNDATION FOR THE EDUCATION OF NEEDY CHILDREN RECEIVES VEHICLE DONATION FROM ASCO MOTORS

Asco Motors donated a Toyota Hilux to the Foundation for the Education of Needy Children (FENC) to support their assistance to underprivileged children across Fiji. The donation of the Toyota Hilux will provide crucial transportation for their activities, including:

- Expanded Outreach: The Toyota Hilux allows FENC to reach remote communities more effectively, ensuring that no child is left behind in pursuing education.
- Increased Efficiency: With its robust build and exceptional cargo space, the Hilux streamlines the delivery of educational resources such as books, school supplies, and vital technology, maximising FENC's impact.
- Enhanced Community Engagement: FENC's team can travel more efficiently to conduct crucial community outreach programs and support initiatives.

The CEO and Director of Asco Motors, Mr Ronald Kumar, stated, "This donation is a lifeline for countless underprivileged children in Fiji, especially during these challenging times. The Toyota Hilux is more than just a vehicle; it's a beacon of hope for Fiji's most vulnerable children."

FENC also expressed deep appreciation, highlighting how the Toyota Hilux marks a pivotal moment in our journey. It allows us to reach more children, illuminate more opportunities, and empower young minds to dream, thrive, and contribute to a brighter Fiji. We are deeply grateful to Asco Motors for recognising the value of education and investing in the potential of Fiji's underprivileged children.

With this vehicle, FENC is poised to make a profound difference in the lives of Fiji's vulnerable children, ensuring access to education, essential resources, and empowered communities.
