Workplace Incident at FHL Tower Site

Fijian Holdings Limited (FHL) has been informed of a workplace incident reported on 25 November 2024 at the FHL Tower construction site, which involved two workers sustaining injuries. Our thoughts and prayers are with those affected and their families during this difficult period.

FHL Tower is currently an active construction site under the management of the main contractor. FHL will work closely with the contractor, and authorities to ensure that the due process is followed.

As a result of this incident, the opening of the FHL Tower has been postponed. This decision reflects our commitment to prioritizing safety and ensuring the highest standards of care and responsibility.

We will continue to provide updates to our shareholders as more information becomes available.
