Fiji Television Board appoints new Chief Executive Officer

8th May 2024, Suva, Fiji – The Board of Fiji Television Limited (to be referred to as “Fiji TV” or “FTV” or “The Company”) is pleased to announce the appointment of Sunjeewa Perera as Chief Executive Officer effective 8 May 2024.

Mr. Perera joins Fiji TV with leadership experience from telecommunications and marketing functions; having previously held positions as Chief Commercial Officer with BlueSky Samoa and Chief Marketing Officer with Vodafone Fiji.

“We look forward to Sunjeewa's transformational leadership in reviewing our current business model, set a new strategic direction with the Board of Fiji Television and deliver business turnaround that will reinforce shareholder confidence, meet shareholder expectations and outline a Growth Agenda that positively contributes to the FHL Group's profitability. On behalf of the Board of Directors, we welcome Sunjeewa as Chief Executive Officer, I also wish him success in leading the Company and our people” Chairman Nesbit Hazelman.

Mr. Hazelman also acknowledged Ms. Poonam Nandani's leadership and commitment in heading Fiji Television the past 10 months as Manager Finance and Acting General Manager. Under her leadership, FTV had launched two new programs and the improvement of news reach through its social media channel by 246%. This included a positive growth of revenue in the last financial year by 39% against 2022. Ms Nandani will continue to be part of executive team and resume her principal role as Manager Finance and Company Secretary effective from 8th May 2024.

Welcome to Fiji Television and the Fijian Holdings Group, Sunjeewa Perera and thank you Poonam Nandani for your commitment to the Company.
